Board your flight to Los Angeles. Enjoy the remainder of your day at leisure *Today breakfast will be included (pending check in time for morning flight).

Day 3 - 4: 11-12 March 2012

Los Angeles - Auckland

Today your New Zealand adventure begins. Enjoy your morning at leisure before boarding your flight to Auckland. .

Day 5: 13 March 2012

Auckland, New Zealand - Tour Begins

Your tour begins today in Auckland, the "City of Sails," consistently rated one of the best places in the world to live. Auckland has the highest Polynesian population in the world, imbuing the vibrant cultures from many Pacific islands into its chic atmosphere. This evening, join your fellow travellers for a welcome dinner. Today dinner will be included.

Day 6: 14 March 2012

Auckland

Get to know the best of Auckland during a panoramic city tour featuring America's Cup Village, the War Memorial, vibrant Queen Street, the Auckland Harbour Bridge, and spectacular views from the top of Mt. Eden, one of 53 dormant volcanoes throughout the area. The remainder of the day is at leisure for you to enjoy the city. Perhaps visit one of the city's amazing museums or galleries, or just enjoy some of the wonderful shopping that is available in the city. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 7: 15 March 2012

Auckland - Bay of Islands

Leave the city and travel north to the Bay of Islands, your home for the next two nights. This Maritime region boasts more than 144 islands, warm bays, a colourful history and abundant marine life. Visit the Waitangi National Trust & Treaty House. It was on these lush grounds that Maori and British leaders signed the 1844 treaty establishing New Zealand's nationhood. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 8: 16 March 2012

Bay of Islands

Begin your day with a cruise through the bay's famous Hole in the Rock and view the Cape Brett Lighthouse which stands nearly 500 feet above sea level at the edge of the Cape Brett Peninsula. The rest of the day is yours to explore Paihia – the quaint town known as "the jewel of the Bay of Islands" – at leisure. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 9: 17 March 2012

Bay of Islands - Rotorua

Today you'll head to the dramatic geothermal landscape of Rotorua. One-third of Rotorua's population has Maori roots dating back to their arrival in New Zealand over 1,000 years ago, making this city a thriving cultural centre. Make yourself right at home this evening when a New Zealand family welcomes you into their home for dinner and a home stay*! This is sure to be an unforgettable experience as you make new friends, learn about the customs of the "Kiwi's" and enjoy a home-cooked meal. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 10: 18 March 2012

Rotorua

This morning visit Te Puia, New Zealand's premier Maori cultural and geothermal experience. You'll be truly amazed by the landscape of erupting geysers, bubbling mud pools and other geothermal wonders! Here, the Maori keep their customs alive by teaching the tribal youth the skills of traditional carving, weaving and dancing. Take part in an interactive demonstration on the art of weaving and the importance of the Maori dress. You will also view the Kiwi bird and learn what New Zealanders are doing to try to remove the Kiwi from the endangered species list. Meet the skilled carvers who work with pounamu, a New Zealand jade, at a local jade factory. Tonight you will experience a traditional Maori welcome and Hangi meal followed by an authentic evening of Maori entertainment. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 11: 19 March 2012

Rotorua - Wellington

Journey south through the rolling countryside of the North Island, dotted with white sheep grazing, making your way to Wellington, New Zealand's capital city. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 12: 20 March 2012

Wellington

During your panoramic sightseeing tour of Wellington, view the Beehive, New Zealand's Parliament, historic St. Paul's Church, and the government building - the largest wooden building in the Southern Hemisphere. Following the tour you will visit the Te Papa Tongawera Museum, a fascinating centre dedicated to art, history and the Maori culture. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 13: 21 March 2012

Wellington - Picton - Christchurch

Climb aboard a ferry and sail across Cook Strait to experience what Wine Spectator called "the most beautiful ferry ride in the world." Arrive in Picton, on the South Island. Discover why the Marlborough region is one of the world's best wine regions when you tour a local winery. Later, arrive in picturesque Christchurch, situated on the Avon River and considered "the most English city outside of England." Today breakfast will be included.

Day 14: 22 March 2012

Christchurch - Franz Josef Glacier Region

All aboard! The Tranz Alpine train whisks you away on a journey past farmlands, through the deep gorges of the Waimakariri River valley and into the rugged snowcapped mountains of the Southern Alps, as you wind your way to New Zealand's spectacular west coast. Arrive in the breathtaking Franz Josef Glacier Region this evening. There is nowhere else in the world where you will find glaciers in such close proximity to temperate climates. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 15: 23 March 2012

Franz Josef - Queenstown

Enjoy a picture stop of the famous Franz Josef glacier before leaving the South Island's lush west coast. Take in the stunning scenery as you pass through rainforest surrounded by the Southern Alps. You'll enjoy beautiful ocean vistas as you travel the twisting coastline. This picturesque route is comprised of one lane bridges, green glacial lakes, thundering waterfalls and dramatic landscape changes. After crossing the Haast Pass, arrive in Queenstown, one of New Zealand's most gorgeous towns. Enjoy a memorable dinner at the Skyline Restaurant overlooking Queenstown, the Remarkable Mountains and Lake Wakatipu. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 16: 24 March 2012

Queenstown

This morning travel to historic Arrowtown, a gold rush town set on the picturesque Arrow River. More than 60 restored buildings date back to the 19th century in this town lined with boutiques and cafés. Stroll along Main Street where you'll discover a wealth of New Zealand handcrafts. This afternoon, venture into New Zealand's largest underground wine cave for a tasting at an award-winning wine producer in the Central Otago region. This charming boutique winery houses a stunning selection of fine wines to quench your palate. This unforgettable experience is followed by lunch at the winery's fabulous restaurant. Later, return to Queenstown and enjoy the remainder of your day at leisure. Today breakfast and lunch will be included.

Day 17: 25 March 2012

Queenstown

Today is yours to discover Queenstown at your leisure. Set amidst spectacular scenery, Queenstown is not only an adventure centre, but offers excellent shopping and dining. Perhaps you'll opt to take off for "Middle Earth" and experience the "Safari of the Rings" adventure, exploring the scenery where Tolkien's beloved stories were brought to life in the film trilogy. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 18: 26 March 2012

Queenstown - Milford Sound - Te Anau

Your ride to Milford Sound is lined with unforgettable beauty, taking you through beech forest into Hollyford Valley's rugged grandeur and through the Homer Tunnel. Arriving at mesmerizing Milford Sound, sail away on a leisurely cruise that brings you through the deep fjord, surrounded by sheer mountains rising almost six thousand feet from the water's surface. Enjoy an overnight on the southern shores of Lake Te Anau, the largest lake on the South Island. Today breakfast and lunch will be included.

Day 19: 27 March 2012

Te Anau - Mt. Cook Region

The Maori word for Mt. Cook is Aoraki, which means "cloud piercer." Journey through New Zealand's unspoiled wilderness and arrive at Mt. Cook National Park, where permanent ice fields and glaciers blanket the ragged peaks. This is where New Zealander Sir Edmund Hillary honed his mountaineering skills before attempting Everest. Explore the park up-close during a nature walk. Maybe you'll choose to partake in an optional flightseeing tour (weather permitting) to witness breathtaking aerial views of Mt. Cook and the glaciers. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 20: 28 March 2012

Mt. Cook - Christchurch

Travel back to Christchurch this morning and visit a family farm in Canterbury. See the workings of the farm including a sheep shearing demonstration, herding, and learn firsthand how this New Zealand family farm operates. A sightseeing tour of the city features the Neo-Gothic Cathedral, the downtown park district and stunning Victorian-style buildings. The remainder of the day is yours to explore this quaint city, named for the college at Oxford University, and exuding a decidedly English feel. Stroll through the gardens, wander through the shops or simply relax. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 21: 29 March 2012

Christchurch

Spend your day at leisure in beautiful Christchurch. Tonight, celebrate the amazing sights you have seen and the new friendships forged as you dine in a restored mansion - once the homestead of the first family to settle in Christchurch. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 22: 30 March 2012

Christchurch - Tour Ends- Los Angeles

Your tour ends today in Christchurch. Depart for Los Angeles for an overnight stay. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 23: 31 March 2012

Los Angeles - Uk

Enjoy your morning at leisure before boarding your overnight flight home.

Day 24 1 April 2012

IMPORTANT RESERVATION INFORMATION

PASSPORTS & VISAS

Obtaining the proper proof of citizenship for entry to destination countries is the responsibility of each client.

A valid 10 year machine readable passport is required for each individual travelling outside of the United Kingdom. Passports must be valid for at least eight months beyond the return date from the destination.

Some countries require a visa in addition to a valid passport for entry into the country. It will be necessary for you to check with the appropriate embassy or consulate for specific information and entry requirements. Upon request, we can forward a visa application from a recommended visa service.

As some countries require your passport to be kept with you at all times as a form of identity, please ensure you keep it on your person in a safe and secure place. If your chosen destination does not require you to carry your passport, please ensure you leave it in a secure place, such as a hotel safety deposit box.

It is sensible to keep a separate note of your passport number and date of issue, therefore we recommend that our clients travelling abroad take a photocopy of their passport and applicable visas. These should be packed separately from your actual passport and visa. We also recommend leaving a copy at home with your chosen emergency contact. Please remember to complete the details of two relatives or friends who may be contacted in an emergency on the inside back cover of your passport.
